

Klein Slangkop Fact Sheet

Klein Slangkop self-catering guest house is situated in the Klein Slangkop Private Estate. This award-winning timber frame house was built in 2004 in a small enchanted reserve of milkwood forest, teeming with birdlife. Although secluded, it is surrounded by fantastic mountain and sea views and is situated within a few minutes walk of a stunning stretch of beach and the famous Sunset Reef, a surfer's paradise.

Accommodation options

Oystercatcher

Oystercatcher is the main house which sleeps 6 comfortably. It boasts a large entertainment area with an open plan, high-ceiling kitchen leading to a welcoming lounge with leather sofas, which flows through double sliding doors onto a wooden deck edging the pool. For quieter moments there is a conservatory and a small library. There are 2 stylish bedrooms downstairs.

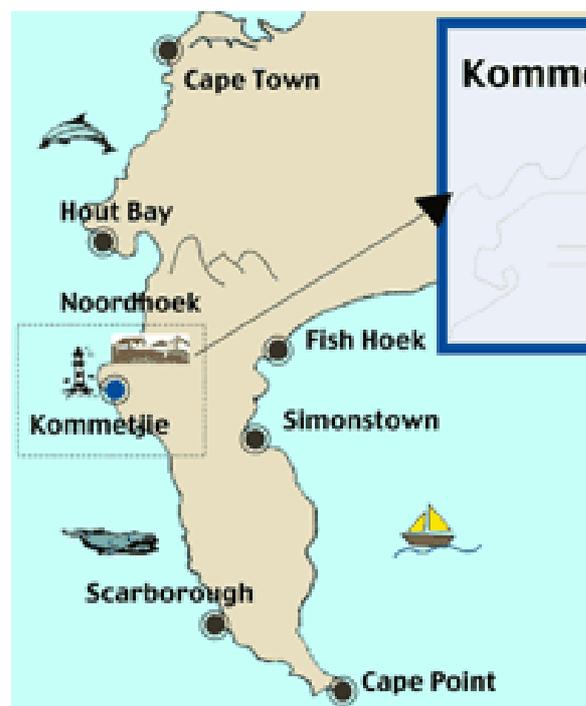

Chapmans Peek

Chapmans Peek, known as the "honeymoon" getaway is ideal for a couple, although it can accommodate four people. It has a master bedroom upstairs with a king-sized bed and bathroom en-suite (bath and hand-held shower) with panoramic views. Downstairs is an open-plan kitchen and lounge with double sleeper couch, a guest toilet and an outside hot/cold shower.

About Kommetjie

Summer months (Nov-Feb) are dry with an average temperature of 25 degrees C. During the wet winter months (May-Aug) temperatures average 15 degrees C. South Africa has one of the highest daily sunshine rates in the world.

Directions from Cape Town International Airport:

Take the N2 west towards Cape Town. As you approach the mountain, take the left fork (M3 – Rhodes Drive/Blue Route).

Stay on this road until reaching the T-junction at the end of the Blue Route (approx. 15km), turn right and before the second set of traffic lights take the M64 (Ou Kaapse Weg).

Proceed over the mountain till you reach the second set of traffic lights.

Turn right into Kommetjie Road. Continue on this road through 2 traffic lights for approx. 8km past Ocean View (left) and Imhoff's Gift (right). As you enter Kommetjie, take the first road right (Wireless Road). Drive to the end where you will arrive at the entrance to the Klein Slangkop Private Estate.

The security guards will direct you to the Klein Slangkop Guest House.